It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough."
It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Day Bros. Co.

BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Was the Falkerson -- Rawlings Wedding Last Evening.

MANY HANDSOME GIFTS.

The wedding of Miss Laura Rawlings and Mr. Robert Falkerson was solemnized last evening at 8:30 o'clock, at Imperial Hotel, in the presence of a large assembly of friends and relatives.
The house was beautifully decorated with evergreens and ferns, and on the mantle and stand table were large jardiniere of cosmos, tastefully arranged.

A few minutes before 8:30, the wedding party proceeded down the stairs Miss Hattie Richmond first, followed by Miss Hattie McLin; then came the bride. The bridesmaids wore beautiful toilets of blue silk mull, and carried bouquets of long stemmed Chrysanthemums. Never did the bride look lovelier than in her wedding gown of white Paris muslin, elaborately trimmed in handsome lace; her bou-quet was of white bride's roses.

The wedding party was met at the foot of the stairs by Mr. Leonidas Redwine and Mr. T. T. Hiner, followed by the bride and groom and Rev. M.
W. Hiner, who performed the ceremony.

The grouping under arch formed by the stairway, was very pretty and effective.

After the congratulations, which followed, the wedding gifts were displayed in the parlor. Seldom, if ever, have such wedding gifts been seen in Jackson. Among the many handsome presents were several beautiful pieces of cut glass, a large quantity of silver, bric-a-brac, chairs and everything in the way of handsome presents was lavished on this happy couple.

Among those who attended were:

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Day, of Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Day, of the Day Bros. Co., and he is held in high esteem by his employers. He was born and raised in Lee county, Va., and was a son of L. D. Falkerson, of Lee county, who has been representative of his county several times.

Miss Rawlings is also employed with the Day Bros. Co., in the Millinery Department, of which she has charge, and is one of the best in this part of the State. She is loved by all who
